STEP 1. Complete Your Registration for the Event

Complete the Visa Application Form which was sent via email to you from our Conference Team.

Hello there,

We have an update on the Moroccan visa applications for you.

If you have already applied for your visa or have received the visa from the embassy in your city/country, you do not need to apply as below and continue following up with the respective embassy.

If you need help securing Moroccan visa for yourself, as a first step we kindly request you to check if you require a visa to enter Morocco through the following link: <https://www.acces-maroc.ma/#/>

It will indicate if you can apply for an eVisa through the same portal

The support we can provide if applying through the eVisa Portal

Below are the steps if you are eligible to apply for your visa through the eVisa Portal.

1. Please complete the attached Visa Application Form.
2. Once completed, please send it back to the undersigned
3. We will upload this information into our registration portal and this will in turn generate your Unique Registration Number which will be required for your visa application for Morocco. This Unique Registration Number will be sent to your registered email address
4. Once you receive the email with your unique registration number (URN) – please proceed and follow the attached step by step process to apply for your visa invitation letter and to apply for your visa through <https://www.acces-maroc.ma/#/>

Note: The visa cost will be borne by you. Shared below the cost for your reference:

MAD 770, 3-5 working days processing

MAD 1100, 1-3 working days processing

The Moroccan Authorities are expediting the visa processing time (subject to clearance). For this reason, kindly submit everything required by 2nd of May 2024

The overall cutoff date for visa applications for GITEX Africa is the 22nd May 2024.

Let me know if you have any further queries regarding the visa process.
